NOVEMBER 1967

The Spokesman

Hunters Point Festival Success

First Annual Hunters Point Festival - Sponsored By The Hunters Point Youngmen For Action, Inc.

African Uzazo A'Roho Dancers

Hunters Point Youngmen For Action Do It

Youngmen For Action Prepare Festival Grounds

Local Artist Henry Kellum

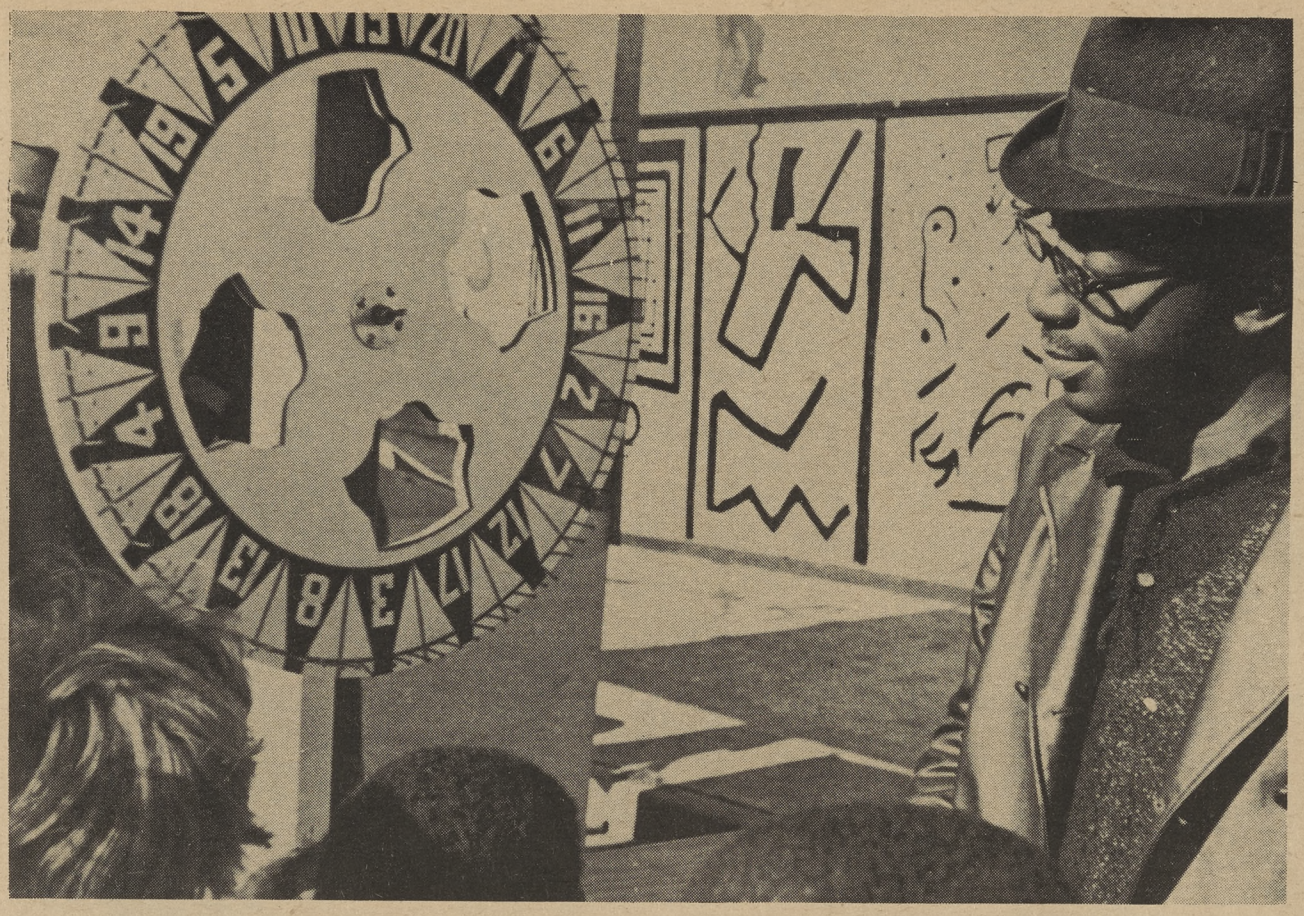

THE SPOKESMAN

SERVING THE PEOPLE OF THE HUNTERS POINT-BAYVIEW, ALICE GRIFFITH & SUNNYSALE AREA.

V.3, no.2

Office of the Economic Opportunity Council
1449 Mendell St.
San Francisco, Calif.
Tel. VA 6-8890

EDITOR
PHIL KAY

Youngman For Action Mans Booth

TV Reporter Makes Interview

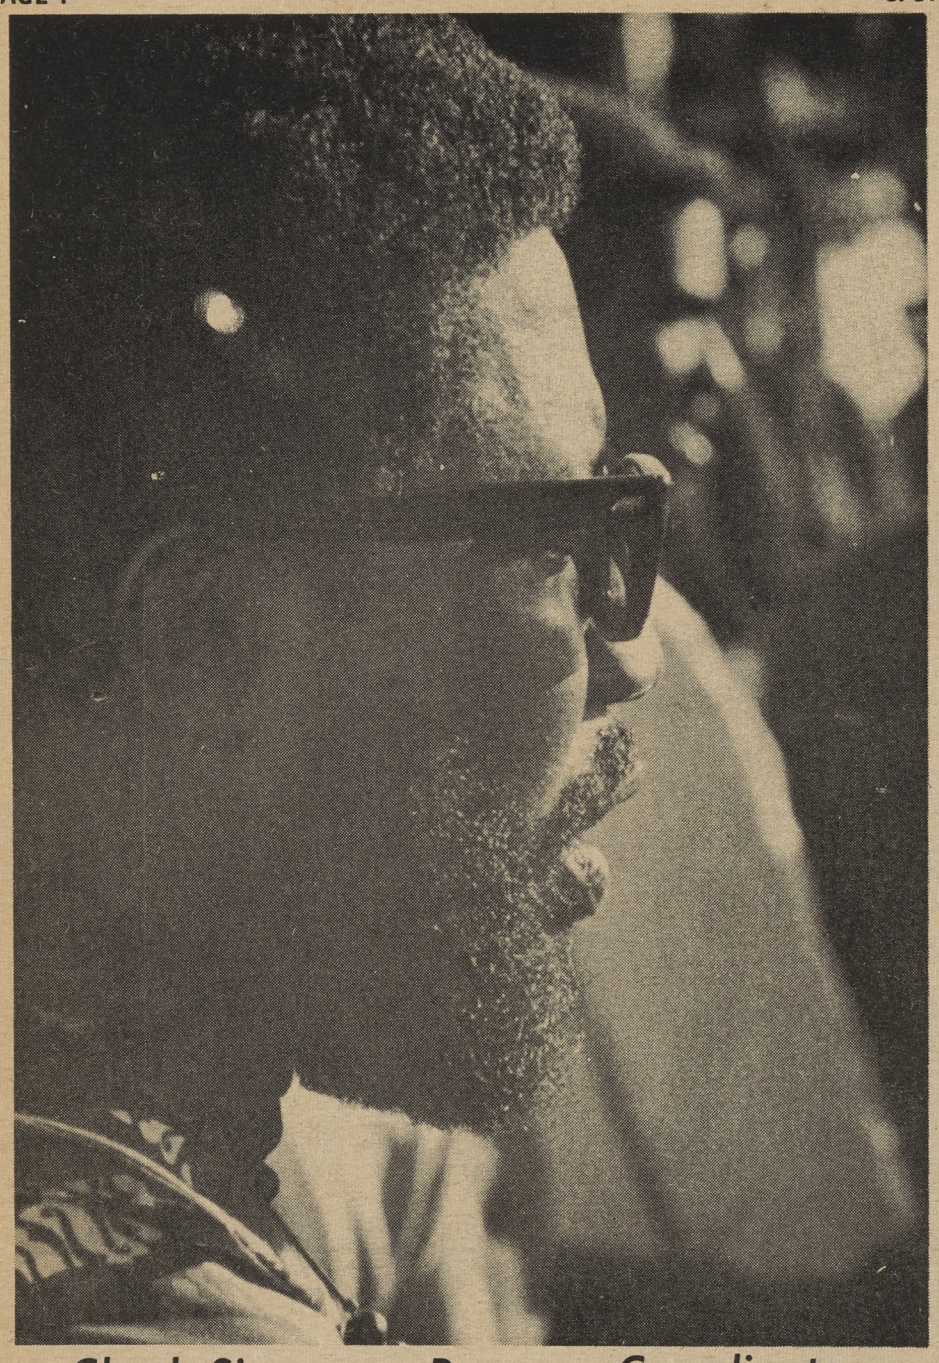

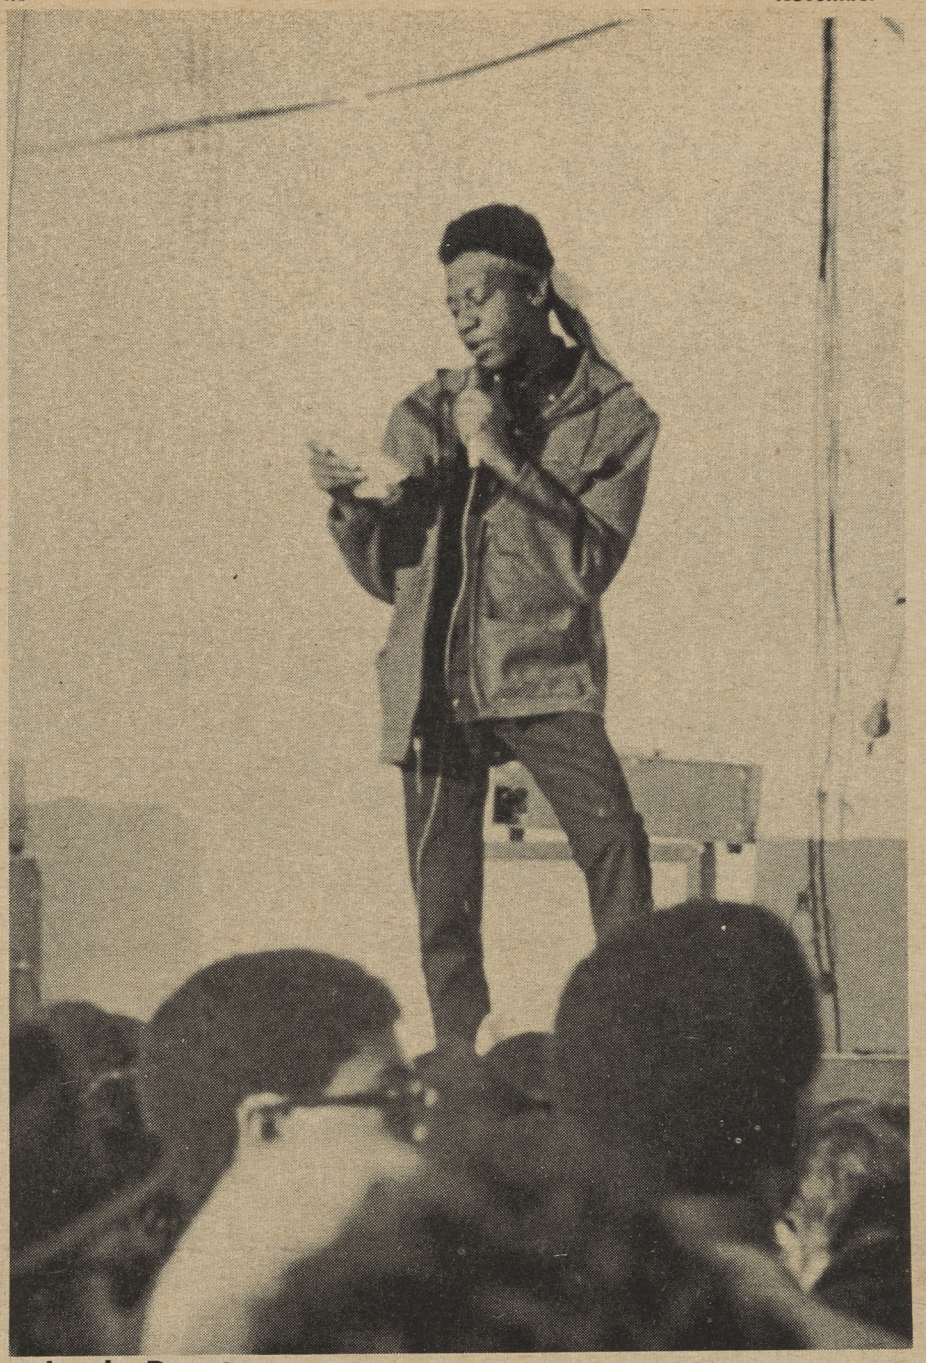

Afro - American Combo Beats Out Rhythm

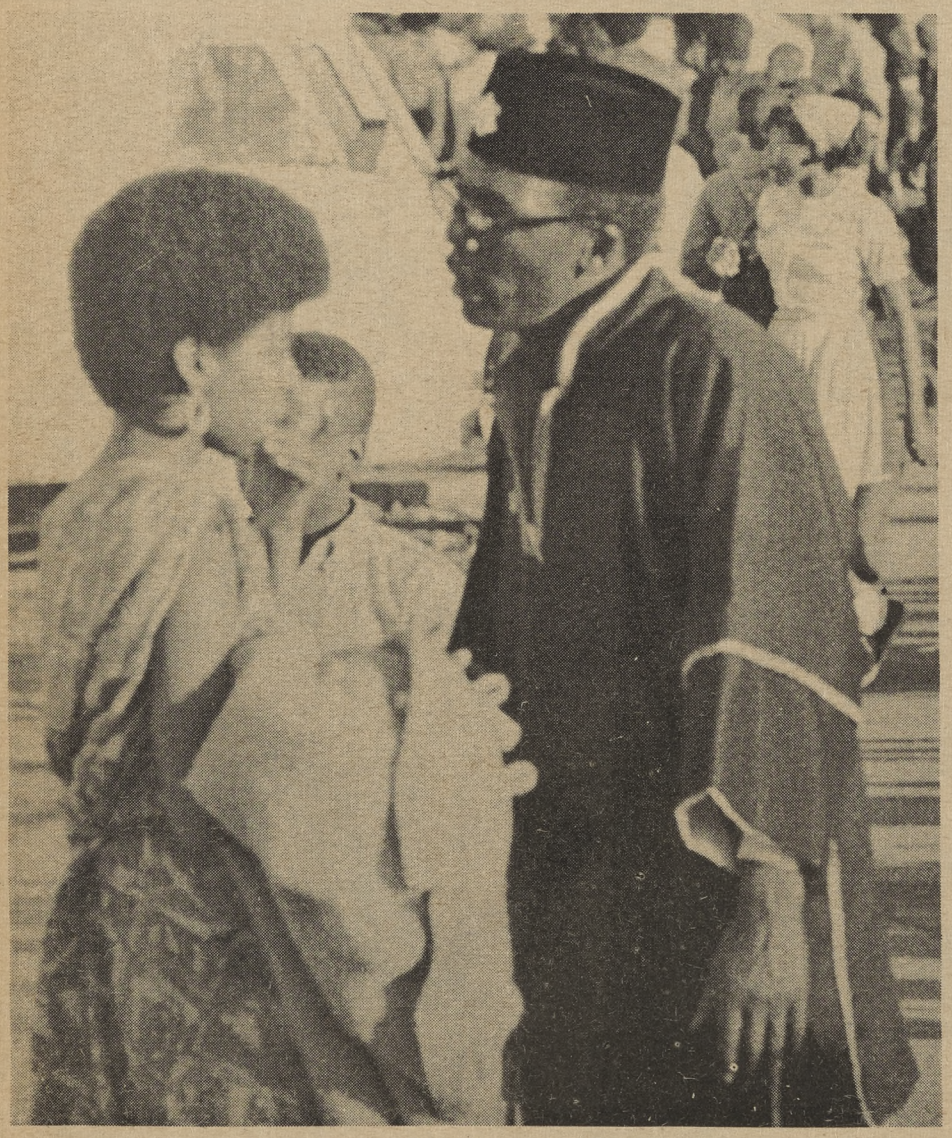

Beautiful Dancer Shows
African Form and Fashion

Chuck Sizemore, Program Coordinator

Black Poet

Nasser Shabazz Raps

Hunters Point Librarian
George Alfred
Mans Library Booth

Poetry In Rhythm

Youngman For Action Milton Otis Mans Booth

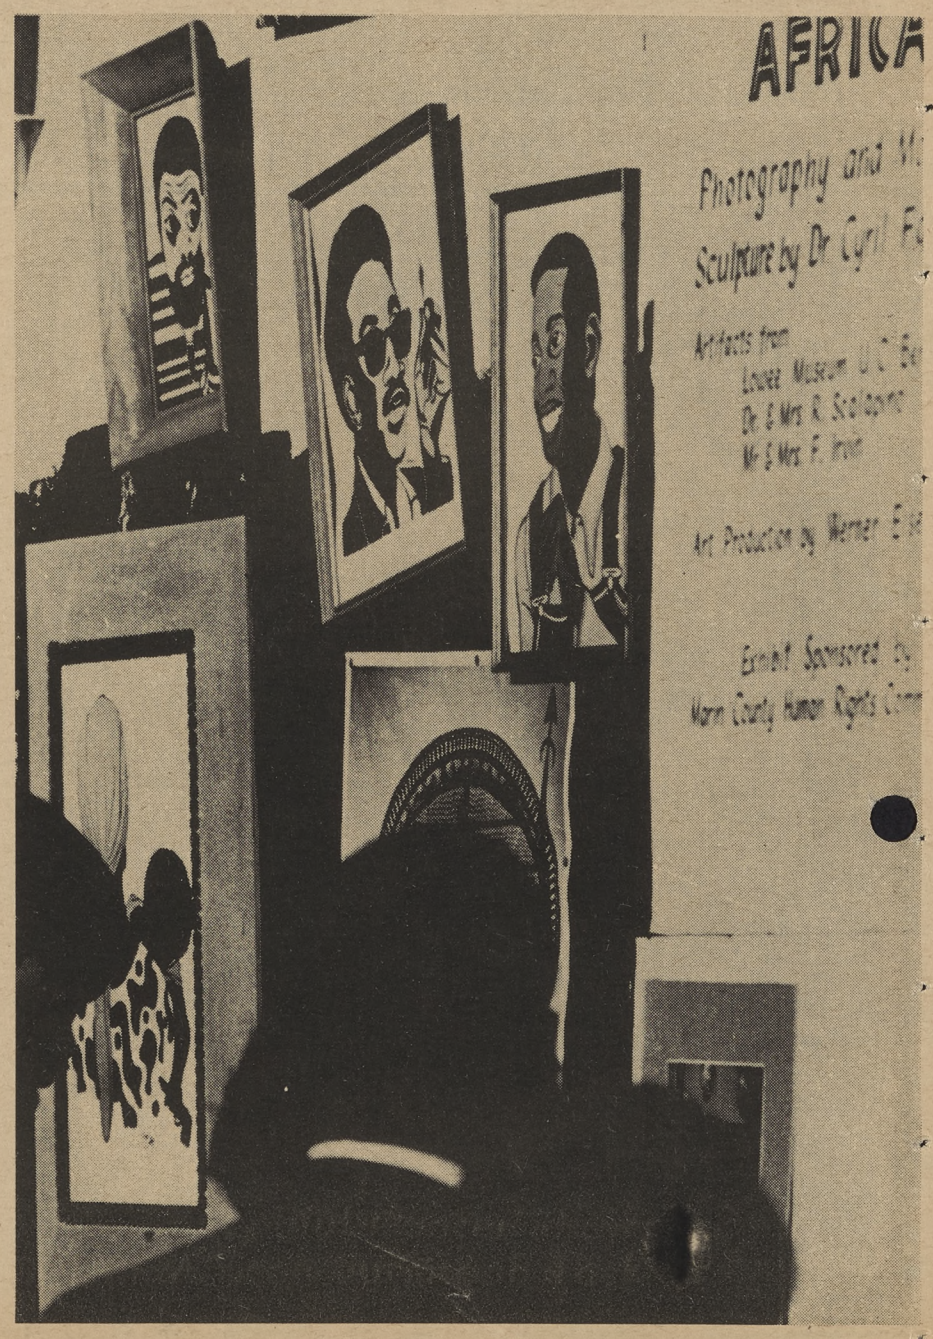

Artist Eugene E. White At Work

Bob Jefferies and Ray Waller

Night Falls As The Fabulous Ballads Perform On Final Night

Youngmen For Action Clean Festival Grounds Day After

It Was Beautiful!

THE SPOKESMAN
1449 MENDELL ST.
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF. 94124